

50th Welcome

REUNION

February 2007

To the Class of 1957:

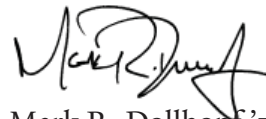

Welcome! Yale University and the Association of Yale Alumni send warmest greetings and invite you and your spouses, partners, families and guests to New Haven this spring to celebrate your 50th Reunion.

Your class volunteers have been working hard and are pleased to offer a wide array of programs and activities throughout the reunion. The University and the AYA would like to congratulate and thank the following individuals for their achievements in planning this weekend: Steve Hopkins, Class Secretary; Tom Chittenden, Class Treasurer; Bern Kosto, Reunion Chair; Andy Glass, 50th Reunion classbook editor, and Charles Everett, 50th Reunion exhibit organizer. Reunions would not be possible without the dedication and hard work of these volunteers.

Take advantage of your time on campus to explore what is new at Yale as the University continues to renovate buildings and introduce new ones to the revitalized New Haven landscape. Come to hear fabulous lectures, come to engage in stimulating conversations over expertly prepared meals, come to experience once again the camaraderie of your classmates.

Most of all, come to celebrate with your friends and families. The most important ingredient for a memorable reunion is you! Your presence will make all the difference.

Boola boola!

Getting Started

REUNION

SCHEDULE

The preliminary schedule on the following pages includes Class of 1957 events planned especially for this class, as well as events for all classes planned by the Association of Yale Alumni (AYA). Pages 5–6 feature other campus events such as cultural center receptions, museum exhibits and religious services.

HEADQUARTERS

50th Reunion headquarters will be Trumbull College. Please check in at Trumbull when you arrive to receive final schedules, name badges and other important information. See page 3 for headquarters hours.

A NOTE ON ACCESSIBILITY

AYA wishes to make reunions as accessible as possible to all attendees. Because individual situations vary, AYA works closely with alumni on a case-by-case basis to accommodate special needs. Please see pages 8 and 9 for more information, and contact AYA for assistance in making special arrangements before sending in your reservation.

CONTACT US

- > Questions not answered here? Call the Reunion Hotline: (203) 432-2110, weekdays, 8:30 am–5 pm. Or email us: reunions@yale.edu.
- > Reservations may be made by mail, by fax or online (we are unable to take phone reservations). For secure online reservations, go to: www.aya.yale.edu/reunions.
- > In keeping with Yale's readiness policy, in the unlikely event of an emergency during reunions, information will be available on the AYA homepage (www.aya.yale.edu) or by calling (203) 432-2110.

DEADLINES

- > Reservation deadline for special requests: May 18. Please reserve by this date if you have any special needs.
- > To cancel or change your reservation, contact the AYA immediately. Cancellations or changes received by May 18 will be fully refunded. Cancellations or changes after May 18 may be subject to partial refunds based on the class's recoverable expenses.

ENCLOSURES

- > Reservation Form
Please return by mail or fax at your earliest convenience. Or register online at www.aya.yale.edu/reunions.
- > Symposium Form
Please use this special registration form to indicate your interest in attending the first annual Symposium on Music Education, sponsored by the Class of 1957.
- > Sweater Flyer
Please use this flyer, featuring Bern and Gale Kosto as models, to determine your size for your alpaca sweater.
- > Who's Coming?
This lists classmates who are planning to attend and is regularly updated on the reunion website.
- > Reunion Map
Please make special note of parking information. An accessibility map is also available online or by contacting the AYA.

Campus renovations continue to improve Yale's physical plant, but also limit visitor access to some facilities. For more information, please consult the reunion website.

General/Travel

REUNION

GETTING TO NEW HAVEN

By car

Please see the map insert for driving directions or go to www.yale.edu/campusmap.

By train

New Haven's Union Station is served by both Metro North (800-638-7646) and Amtrak (800-USA-RAIL). The campus is a short ride by taxi or Reunion Shuttle.

By air

Tweed-New Haven Airport is the closest to campus (10 minutes by taxi). See www.flytweed.com or call (203) 466-8833 for airline info.

Bradley International (Hartford) and New York area airports (JFK, LaGuardia and Newark) are accessible by airport limousine (see below). Newark also has an on-airport train station.

Airport transportation

Connecticut Limo (www.ctlimo.com or 800-472-5466, weekdays 7 am to 7 pm) provides service to New Haven from Bradley and New York airports. For reunions, the limo drops off and picks up from central campus. Advanced reservation is strongly encouraged; identify yourself as attending Yale Reunions to make a guaranteed reservation for both arrival and departure.

ARRIVING IN NEW HAVEN

Your ultimate destination when you arrive in New Haven will be our class reunion headquarters (hours, see page 3).

At headquarters, you will receive final schedules and name badges. Those staying on campus will receive room assignments and keys.

Alumni staying in the college who arrive by train or air should go directly to headquarters. If arriving by car, we recommend you first park at Pierson-Sage Garage (see map insert) and take the Reunion Shuttle to headquarters.

If you will be staying at a reunion hotel (see page 10), we recommend checking in at your hotel first. (All reunion hotels provide parking for a nominal fee.) Then enjoy a short walk or take the Reunion Shuttle to headquarters.

AYA REUNION SHUTTLE SERVICE

AYA Reunion Shuttle services the train station, official reunion hotels, reunion parking at Pierson-Sage Garage, Tweed-New Haven airport (departures only), the residential colleges, Old Campus, and most other campus locations.

Shuttle Hours

Thursday: noon–midnight
Friday & Saturday: 7:30 am–2 am
Sunday: 7 am–4 pm

The Reunion Shuttle picks up arrivals at the train station and Pierson-Sage Garage two to three times an hour throughout the weekend. Look for “Yale College Reunions” signs on buses and vans. During peak times, there may be an additional wait if a given shuttle is full. If you prefer, you may also call a taxi (203-777-7777).

The Reunion Shuttle also covers transportation needs around campus. Staff in headquarters and at the hotels can provide details.

Parents bringing children should note that Connecticut state law requires the use of car seats for young children. Reunion shuttles are not equipped with car seats, so families using the shuttle should bring their own or ride at their own risk.

PARKING

For those staying on campus, AYA strongly recommends that you park your car for the weekend and use the Reunion Shuttle to get around campus. Pierson-Sage Garage (on Whitney Avenue just north of the Peabody Museum—see map insert) is available to alumni during reunions free of charge.

Public parking lots are also available but may have limited hours; many are not open overnight or on Sunday. Street parking is not recommended other than for brief periods, as it is subject to meters, ticketing and towing.

All reunion hotels provide parking for guests for a nominal fee.

REUNION HEADQUARTERS HOURS & LATE ARRIVALS

Please see page 3 for headquarters hours.

If you will be staying on campus and arriving after headquarters closes, arrangements can be made in advance to greet you. Please note your estimated arrival time on the reservation form in the space for special housing requests.

Late arrivals who are staying at a reunion hotel may check into the hotel at any time. We look forward to welcoming you at reunion headquarters the following morning.

SPECIAL NEEDS, HANDICAPPED ACCESS & RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE

AYA makes every effort to make reunions accessible to all alumni and guests. Special transportation and limited handicapped accessible accommodations are available. If you have physical limitations or special needs, please contact AYA before making your reservation. You will then use the reservation form to confirm specific campus housing and transportation arrangements. (Contact hotels directly for their info; see page 10.) Handicapped access information for most Yale buildings can be found at www.yale.edu/rod/accessmap or by calling AYA.

Jewish or other religiously-observant alumni who wish to stay on campus should note that campus housing involves the use of electronic devices. Please contact AYA to discuss in further detail before the May 18 deadline, and we will do our best to accommodate your needs. (Kosher meal info, page 6)

RESERVATION DEADLINE (SPECIAL REQUESTS): May 18
CANCELLATION DEADLINE (FOR FULL REFUND): May 18

Please contact AYA for more details or to discuss any other concerns.

SPECIAL MEAL REQUESTS

Yale Catering makes every effort to accommodate special requests for meals served on campus during reunions. Vegan/vegetarian and other non-red meat options are available at every meal. More specific needs—Kosher, food allergies, etc.—can be requested in advance. To receive your special meal at reunion, simply identify yourself to your server or present your meal ticket, if applicable.

Please use the space on the reservation form to let us know your needs. If the Catering office has any questions, they will contact you before reunions.

Please see page 6 for more information on Kosher meals in particular.

WEATHER & DRESS CODE

Temperatures for late May and early June in New Haven have been as low as 50°F and as high as 90°F. In addition, rain is always a possibility.

We strongly advise bringing an umbrella and clothing suitable for variable weather. Please keep in mind that most reunion meals are served outdoors under a tent and cannot be moved indoors regardless of weather conditions. (Indoor venues are not possible in most cases because of the number of alumni and guests attending.)

Daytime activities call for casual, comfortable clothes. Many alumni and guests enjoy the opportunity to walk around campus, so comfortable shoes are recommended.

Evening events, particularly our Class Dinner, will be dressier. Generally, men will wear jacket and tie, and women will wear comparable attire. Walking conditions around campus and under the tents can be uneven and damp, however, so appropriate footwear is recommended.

SECURITY

Various services are available to help you get around campus safely and conveniently during your visit. The Reunion Shuttle service has extended hours (see page 7). When the shuttle is not operating, Yale security escorts and the campus mini-bus are on call. Look for telephone numbers for these two services on campus “blue phones.” These phones also provide a direct connection to the Yale Police 24 hours a day, in case of an emergency.

The main entrance to the residential colleges hosting reunions will be open and staffed on the same schedule as headquarters (see page 3). Security personnel are onsite overnight as well in case of emergency. Alumni staying in the college will have access via electronic access cards (in many cases, manual keys can be provided for observant alumni; see above). For security reasons, it is not possible to issue access cards to those not staying in the college, or to prop open gates other than the main entrance during the day.

We encourage you to use the same care in safeguarding yourself and your possessions that you observe elsewhere. Keep your room locked; leave valuables at home; lock your car and store any items in the trunk or out of sight.

Housing & Hotel

REUNION

CAMPUS HOUSING

Alumni may stay overnight in student rooms either in the residential college that serves as reunion headquarters or in the New Residence Hall. Campus housing reservations are made via the enclosed reservation form or online.

RESIDENTIAL COLLEGE / OLD CAMPUS HOUSING

Although somewhat spartan and designed for students, campus housing offers camaraderie and convenience. Fees are on a per-person basis (except for children in cribs or sleeping bags). Alumni and guests are housed in the location that serves as reunion headquarters.

Campus renovations have dramatically altered suite configurations, which also vary widely across campus. Most suites have multiple bedrooms and a common room; bedrooms are a mix of singles and doubles. Depending on the number in your party, reunion guests will usually share a suite with other attendees, single attendees may share a bedroom, and couples may be assigned to two single bedrooms. Families are kept together in a single suite.

Bathrooms are communal, with unlockable doors, and may be co-ed or on another floor. They may be located on the stair landing or within the suite.

Private accommodations cannot be provided except for medical reasons. A limited number of handicapped accessible rooms and rooms with non-electronic access (for religious observance) are available. See page 8.

Beds are all singles and many rooms have permanent bunk beds (Classes of 1942–1967 are not assigned to upper bunks). Rooms have dressers, desks and chairs, and other student furniture may be stored there. Yale provides linens (sheets, blanket, pillow, pillowcase), towels, washcloths and soap. Campus rooms do not have phones, air conditioning, or fans. Most have overhead lighting only; a desk lamp may be requested and bringing a “book light” is helpful. Internet access is available and requires an ethernet cable (see the reunion website for laptop configuration instructions). Yale cannot provide cribs; you may bring a portable crib or sleeping bag for young children. All Yale buildings are strictly non-smoking.

Alumni may submit roommate requests via the reservation form no later than May 18. Please contact your classmates first and then indicate your request on the form; each reservation must be received by the deadline and list all names in the group. While we are able to satisfy the majority of roommate requests, we are limited by room configurations.

With the exception of families with children and alumni with special needs, housing requests cannot be guaranteed. Please contact AYA with any questions before reserving.

NEW RESIDENCE HALL HOUSING

Alumni from all reunion classes may also stay in the New Residence Hall (NRH) on Tower Parkway near Payne Whitney Gym. NRH fees are per bedroom, with a two night minimum stay. NRH suites consist of two such bedrooms (two single beds each), a furnished common room, a kitchenette, and an in-suite bathroom. As with residential college housing, depending on the number in your party, you may share a suite with other attendees. In NRH, you may share a suite with alumni from another reunion class.

Families with young children should note that each suite contains four beds, and there is limited floor space to accommodate portable cribs or sleeping bags. Please contact AYA before reserving if you have any questions.

NRH is air-conditioned and handicapped accessible, with elevator access to all floors. As with residential college housing, Yale provides linens, towels, washcloths and soap, and other details are as described above.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

For alumni who prefer greater comfort or privacy, AYA has reserved rooms at New Haven area hotels. Alumni make their own reservations directly with the hotel of their choice. Prompt reservation is recommended; any rooms remaining will be released on April 30. After this date, reservations are subject to general availability and prevailing rates.

If your preferred hotel is sold out, you may wish to inquire about the facility's waitlist policy. We recommend making a reservation at another hotel in the meantime.

Please check with the individual hotel regarding amenities, parking fees, cancellation policies, and check in/out times. We suggest you guarantee your room for late arrival.

For the Yale rate, call hotels directly in New Haven, using these codes:

YCR107 (for May 31–June 3)
YCR207 (for June 7–10)

HOTEL TRANSPORTATION

AYA Reunion Shuttle service covers the hotels listed here; at other facilities, you will be responsible for transportation to and from campus. See page 7 for hours.

Kids at Reunions

REUNION

ARE CHILDREN WELCOME AT REUNIONS?

Yes! Yale Reunions have long been considered a wonderful opportunity for Yale College alumni to introduce their families to their classmates and to Yale.

WILL THERE BE ACTIVITIES FOR MY CHILDREN?

Yes. AYA works with classes likely to have children attending to include programming for children and adults alike so all may enjoy their time on campus. Please see pages 3–4 for your class’s details. Saturday’s “Morning at Yale” will include activities for children to participate in with their parents. The “Family Festival” on Saturday afternoon will offer carnival games, an inflatable funfest, and other children’s activities.

WILL THERE BE CHILDREN’S MEALS?

Yes. Most meals are informal and buffet-style, with selections appropriate for children. For classes offering a table-service menu for the Class Dinner, a special children’s entree may be available and may be ordered on your reservation form.

WILL THERE BE CHILDCARE?

Yes. AYA contracts with Bright Horizons Family Solutions, a professional childcare provider, to offer “Camp Bulldog,” a supervised program for children ages 4 months to entering 8th grade. Sessions will be offered Friday evening, Saturday morning, and Saturday evening, and you may sign your child up for any number of sessions. Children will be divided into five age groups with activities and meals in and around Payne Whitney Gymnasium.

DO I HAVE TO PRE-REGISTER FOR CHILDCARE?

Yes. Space in Camp Bulldog is limited, and pre-registration is required. A Camp Bulldog schedule and registration form is included in this packet for the classes of 1972, 1977, 1982, 1987, and 1992. You may also register online as part of the overall reunion reservation process (www.aya.yale.edu/reunions). If you did not receive a brochure, please contact AYA at reunions@yale.edu or (203) 432-2110.

HOW MUCH DOES CAMP BULLDOG COST?

The Camp Bulldog fee is $65 per child for any number of sessions, which covers program costs such as activities and staff. This is in addition to the children’s fee for your class reunion, which covers general reunion setup and the cost of your child’s meals (regardless of whether eaten with the class or at Camp Bulldog). There is no class reunion fee for children under age 3.

CAN I BRING MY OWN BABYSITTER?

Yes. Some parents do make plans to bring their own babysitter to campus with them so they may fully enjoy the weekend. You will be charged a reservation fee for your sitter to cover meals and housing, as appropriate.

CAN I HIRE A BABYSITTER ON CAMPUS?

No. For liability reasons, with the exception of the Camp Bulldog sessions, University staff and students cannot be responsible for your children during the weekend.

HOW DO I GET MORE INFORMATION?

If you have additional questions about children at reunions, please feel free to contact Debby Jagielow at AYA at deborah.jagielow@yale.edu or (203) 436-8013. If you have questions about the Camp Bulldog program, please contact Mary Schofield at Bright Horizons Family Solutions at (617) 673-8189 or campbulldog@yale.edu.

Common Questions

REUNION

WHERE DO I GO WHEN I ARRIVE?

Those arriving by air or train should go directly to reunion headquarters to check in and get final weekend information. Those arriving by car are encouraged to park first: Pierson-Sage Garage if staying on campus or visiting for the day; hotel parking if staying at a hotel. Then take the shuttle to headquarters. See page 7.

WHERE CAN I PARK?

If staying on campus or visiting for the day, AYA recommends parking in Pierson-Sage Garage and using the Reunion Shuttle to get around campus. See map insert. Parking on the street is subject to meters, ticketing and towing, and private lots are usually not open 24 hours a day.

For those at hotels, you may park in the hotel lot (for a nominal fee), and use the Reunion Shuttle to get to events.

HOW DOES THE REUNION SHUTTLE WORK?

For arrivals, the shuttle picks up regularly at the train station, and Pierson-Sage Garage. The shuttle also serves Tweed-New Haven airport for departures only. Connecticut Limo drops off on central campus for reunions. For transportation around campus, staff in headquarters and at the hotels can provide details. See page 7.

WHAT IF I HAVE SPECIAL NEEDS?

AYA wishes to make reunions as accessible as possible to all. Because situations vary, we work closely with individuals to accommodate special needs for housing, transportations, meals, etc. Please contact AYA for assistance before reserving.

CAN I BRING MY CHILDREN?

Children are welcome at reunions. AYA partners with Bright Horizons Family Solutions to offer “Camp Bulldog,” a camp and childcare program for ages 4 months to entering 8th grade (flier enclosed for Classes of 1972–1992). Space is limited; pre-registration required (see page 11).

Many classes also include family-friendly events and meals in their class program. See schedule on pages 3–4.

WHAT SHOULD I WEAR?

Most reunion events are casual. For the Class Dinner, most classes suggest jacket and tie for men and comparable attire for women. Reunion meals are usually served outdoors under a tent and cannot be moved indoors regardless of weather, so please plan accordingly.

WHAT WILL THE WEATHER BE?

Spring temperatures in New Haven can range widely. In addition, rain is always possible. We advise you to plan for variable weather and bring an umbrella.

WILL I HAVE A ROOMMATE?

It is likely that you will share a suite with other attendees; single attendees may share a bedroom. If you request to share a suite or room with particular classmates, all reservations for the group must be received by the special requests deadline of May 18. See page 9.

CAN I VISIT MY OLD HAUNTS?

Campus renovations continue to improve Yale’s physical plant but also limit access to some facilities. In particular, Jonathan Edwards & Silliman Colleges will be completely closed, and colleges not hosting reunions are usually not open during reunions. For more details, please see the reunion website.

WHAT IF I NEED TO CANCEL?

Please notify AYA immediately. Full refunds will be made for changes and cancellations received by May 18; partial refunds provided after May 18, based on the class’s recoverable expenses.

WHERE CAN I FIND MORE INFO?

For updated schedules, secure online reservation and attendance lists, go to: www.aya.yale.edu/reunions. For questions or special needs, call the Reunion Hotline at (203) 432-2110, weekdays 8:30 am to 5 pm, or email reunions@yale.edu. For Camp Bulldog questions, call Mary Schofield at (617) 673-8189 or email campbulldog@yale.edu.
